

God has put everything under our power and has not left anything out of our power. But we still don't see it all under our power. What we do see is Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels. Because of God's wonderful kindness, Jesus died for everyone. And now that Jesus has suffered and died, he is crowned with glory and honor!

Everything belongs to God, and all things were created by his power. So God did the right thing when he made Jesus perfect by suffering, as Jesus led many of God's children to be saved and to share in his glory. Jesus and the people he makes holy all belong to the same family. That is why he isn't ashamed to call them his brothers and sisters.

*Welcome Home!
Good Morning. I am thankful you heard the Lord's call to join us in worship here at FPC. I hope you feel God's presence as you are greeted by this congregation and as you offer yourself in worship. It is everyone's hope here at FPC that you feel welcome and like you belong. We believe strongly that we are family and that everyone plays an important part. So, WELCOME HOME, we invite you to join us as you feel the Spirit's leading.
Blessings, Pastor Andy*

THE GATHERING

CENTERING PRAYER

God of the ages, whose care for your children spans generations, we praise and adore you. We hear how you led Israel through their wanderings and brought them safely to the Promised Land. We are taught that Christ calls us to enter your covenant, that you open your kingdom to all who believe him. We take part in your graciousness and live by your mercy. Hear our worship of you as we confess our faith anew. Amen.

Let Us Break Bread Together

*CALL TO WORSHIP

We come together as the Church of Jesus Christ, recognizing that our Lord loved and died, not just for the church but for all people, God's highest creation.

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son.

We also recognize that in God's great love, we sense our need first to be loved and then to be turned around, to face the needs of others.

We love, because God first loves us.

Let us love, then, so that we may be free of selfish desires, and free to do God's will.

Whatever we do to the least of God's family, we do to our Lord.

Let us worship God!

*HYMN OF PRAISE

God Is Here!

Eng. 461

*CALL TO CONFESSION

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

God of all the earth, you have created us to live together. Jesus loves all the children of the world. And yet, children all over the world are hungry, children all over the world lack clean water, children all over the world live as refugees. We are overwhelmed by their needs and throw up our hands. Forgive us, O God, and call us to faithfulness. Remind us that each of us is your child, all of us brothers and sisters. As Jesus Christ invites us to his table this day, remind us that the whole world is present. As we are fed, lead us forward to care for your children.....

(our prayer continues in silence)

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON

If anyone sins, we have someone who pleads with the Father on our behalf – Jesus Christ, the righteous one.

Christ himself is the means by which our sins are forgiven, and not our sins only, but all who call on his name.

For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but have eternal life.

Thanks be to God!

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

Hebrews 1:1-4; 2:8-11

Long ago in many ways and at many times God's prophets spoke his message to our ancestors. But now at last, God sent his Son to bring his message to us. God created the universe by his Son, and everything will someday belong to the Son. God's Son has all the brightness of God's own glory and is like him in every way. By his own mighty word, he holds the universe together.

After the Son had washed away our sins, he sat down at the right side of the glorious God in heaven. He had become much greater than the angels, and the name he was given is far greater than any of theirs.
